

Constitutional Examples

1. Neither a state nor the national government may prevent people from expressing their opinions.
2. Most criminal laws are passed by the states.
3. The president is elected every four years.
4. The Senate confirms presidential appointments.
5. The national government provides the rules for bankruptcy.
6. The Supreme Court has no executive power to carry out its rulings.
7. Freedom of religion is guaranteed by the First Amendment.
8. The national government prints our money.
9. The president signs or vetoes bills passed by Congress.
10. You may leave the country to visit relatives in another country.